CODE OF CONDUCT

Players are the most important people in the sport. Playing for the team, and for the team to win, is the most fundamental part of the game. But not winning at any cost – Fair Play and respect for all other in the game is very important.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PLAYERS

A player should:

- Make every effort to develop his or her own sporting abilities, in terms of skill, technique, tactics and stamina.
- Give maximum effort and strive for the best possible performance during a game, even if his team is in a position where the desired result has already been achieved.
- Set a positive example for others, particularly young players and supporters
- Avoid all forms of gamesmanship, and time- wasting
- Always have regard to the best interests of the game, including where publicly expressing an opinion on the game and any particular aspect of it, including others involved in the game.
- Not use inappropriate language.

Obligations towards one's own team

A Player should:

- Make every effort consistent with fair play and the Laws and the Game to help his or her own team win.
- Resist any influence, which might, or might be seen to, bring the question of his commitment to the winning team.
- Respect the Laws of the Game and competition rules
- Know and abide by the laws, rules and spirit of the game, and the completion rules.
- Accept success and failure, victory and defeat, equally.
- Resist any temptation to take banned substances or use banned techniques.

Respect towards Opponents

Treat Opponents with due respect at all times, irrespective of the result of the game.

A Player should:

- Safeguard the physical fitness of opponents, avoid violence and rough play, and help injured opponents.

Respect towards the Match Officials

A Player should

- Accept the decisions of the Match Officials without protest.
- Avoid words or actions, which may mislead a Match Official.
- Show due respect towards Match Officials.

Respect towards Team Officials

A Player should

- Abide by the instructions of his coach and team officials, provided they do not contradict the spirit of this code.
- Show due respect towards the Team Officials of the opposition.

Obligations towards the supporters

A Player should

- Show due respect to the interest of the supporters.

Code of Conduct for Spectators

Your actions influence the mood of the players and the game.

- Stand away from the touchline.
- Do not abuse match officials, however much you disagree with their decision.
- Encourage all players and applaud their efforts.
- Do not ridicule opponents for their mistakes.
- Do not applaud foul play, and do not incite your players to foul.
- Do not use foul or abusive language to players or spectators.
- You MUST NOT enter the field of play during a game unless asked to do so by the referee.
- Remember when you are supporting your team you are representing your club and your league.
- You are subject to the laws of the game. You can be cautioned, reported, sent away from the ground, and suspended from attending any matches. Your team or Club can also be fined, suspended or expelled from the competition.
